

Bibliography

The list below includes all the publications cited in the notes, as well as a number of others that strongly influenced my thinking. The few works not written in Dutch or English were consulted in Dutch or English translation, as indicated. When English versions of works consulted in Dutch are known to exist, they are noted. Otherwise, an indicative translation of the Dutch title is given. All World Bank publications appear under 'World Bank', but many of them can also be found under the names of the individual authors.

The bibliography is divided into three sections:

- Books and articles
- Periodicals
- Memorandums from the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs (including the development cooperation programme, DGIS) and other Dutch government bodies
