

Curriculum Vitae English

Marjolein Wals was born on March 1st, 1969 in Leiden.

After finishing high school (VWO) she started her study Psychology at the University of Amsterdam. In 1995 she graduated Cum Laude in Developmental Psychology and Clinical Psychology.

In September 1995 she started working as a neuropsychologist at the Pedological Institute of Duivendrecht and at the department of Child and Adolescent psychiatry of the AMC, Amsterdam.

In 1996 she worked as a neuropsychologist at the department of medical psychology of the VU-hospital, Amsterdam and for the ADHD-department of revalidation center “the Trappenberg” in Huizen.

By the end of 1997 she commenced in the research project that has led to the present thesis.

Since January 2001 Marjolein is working as a neuropsychologist and supervisor of postgraduate psychologists studying Health Psychology at the department of Child/Adolescent Psychiatry, Erasmus MC-Sophia Children's Hospital Rotterdam.