

Figures

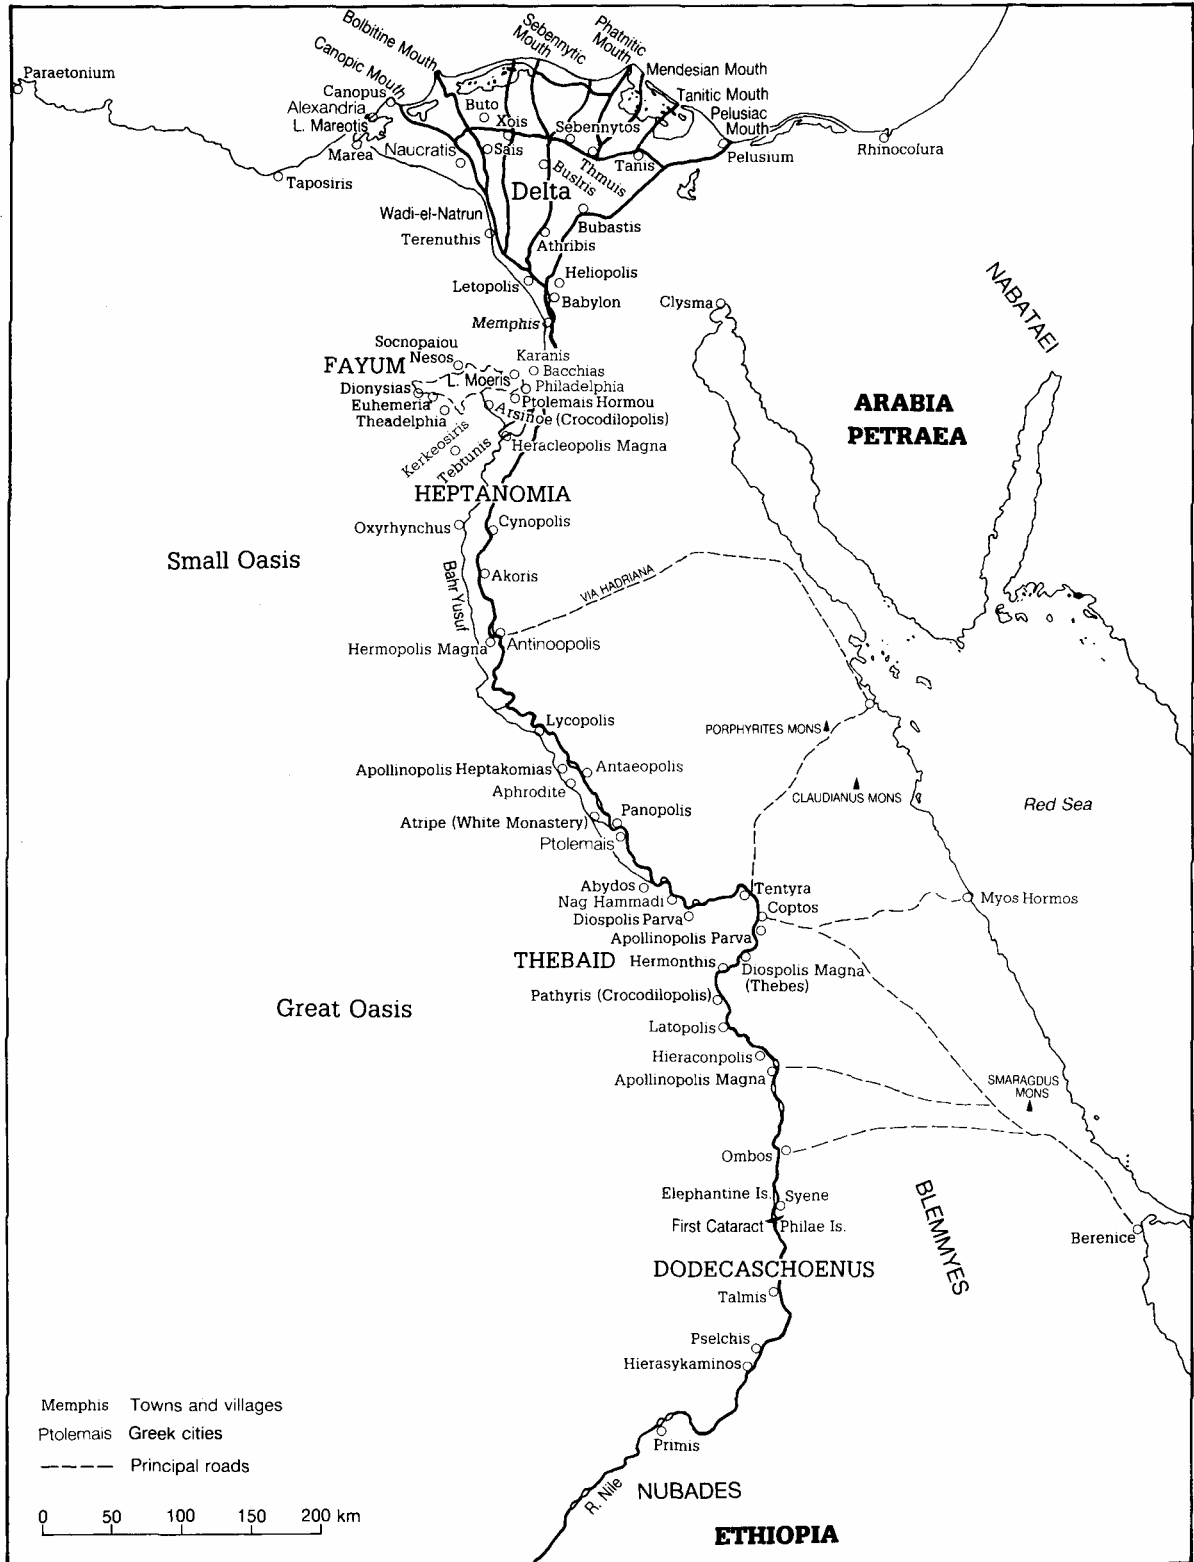

Fig. 1. Egypt in the Graeco-Roman period (Bowman, Egypt, Fig. 1).

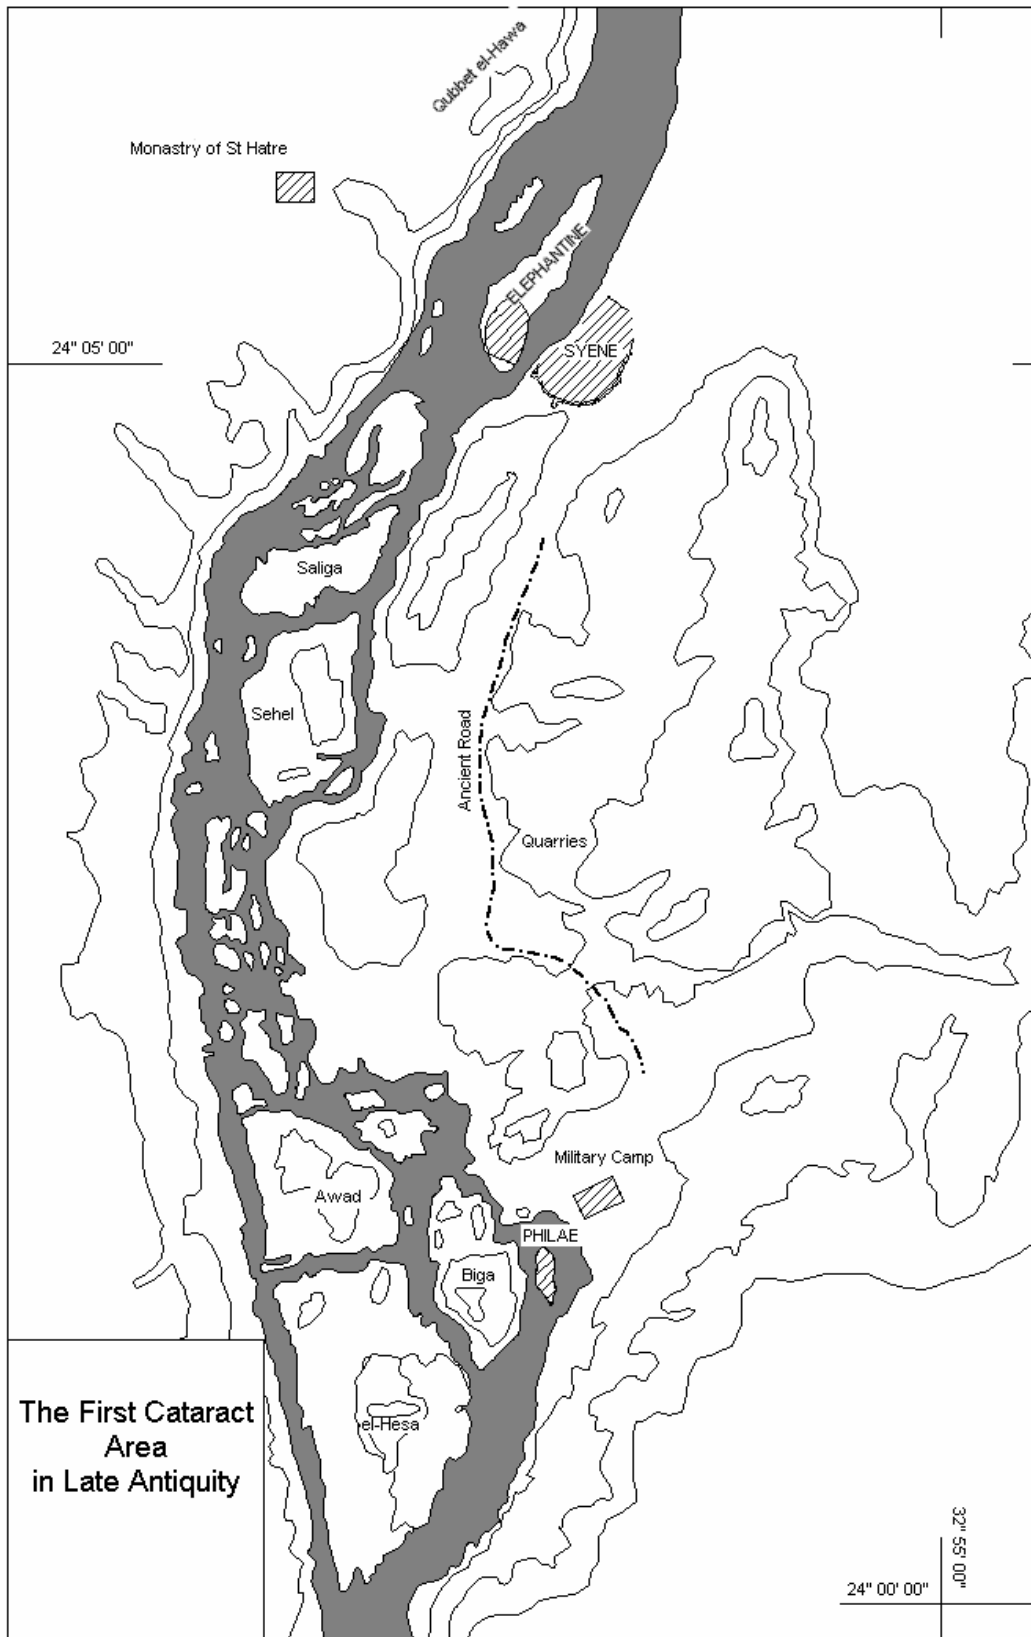

Fig. 2. The First Cataract area in Late Antiquity (with help of K.-C. Bruhn).

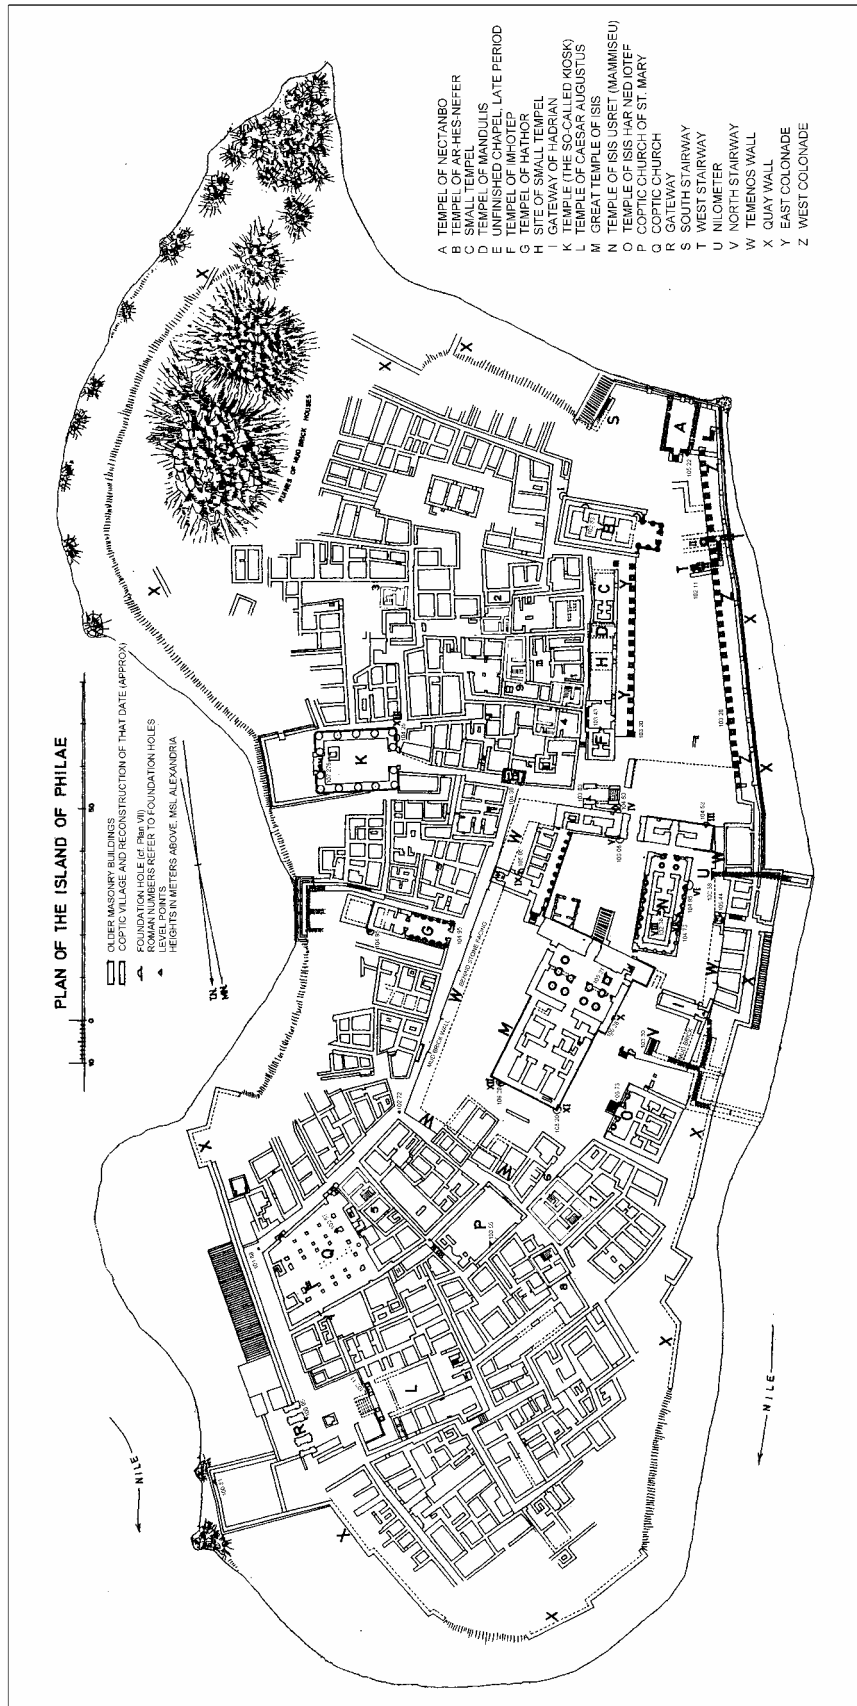

Fig. 3. Philae before the transportation of its temples to Agilkia (Lyons, Report on the Island and Temples, Pl. 1).

Fig. 4. Demotic Graffito from Philae (I.Philae.Dem. 365, Pl. 54).

Fig. 5. The topos of St Stephen inside the temple of Isis at Philae (Grossmann, Christliche Architektur, Fig. 80).

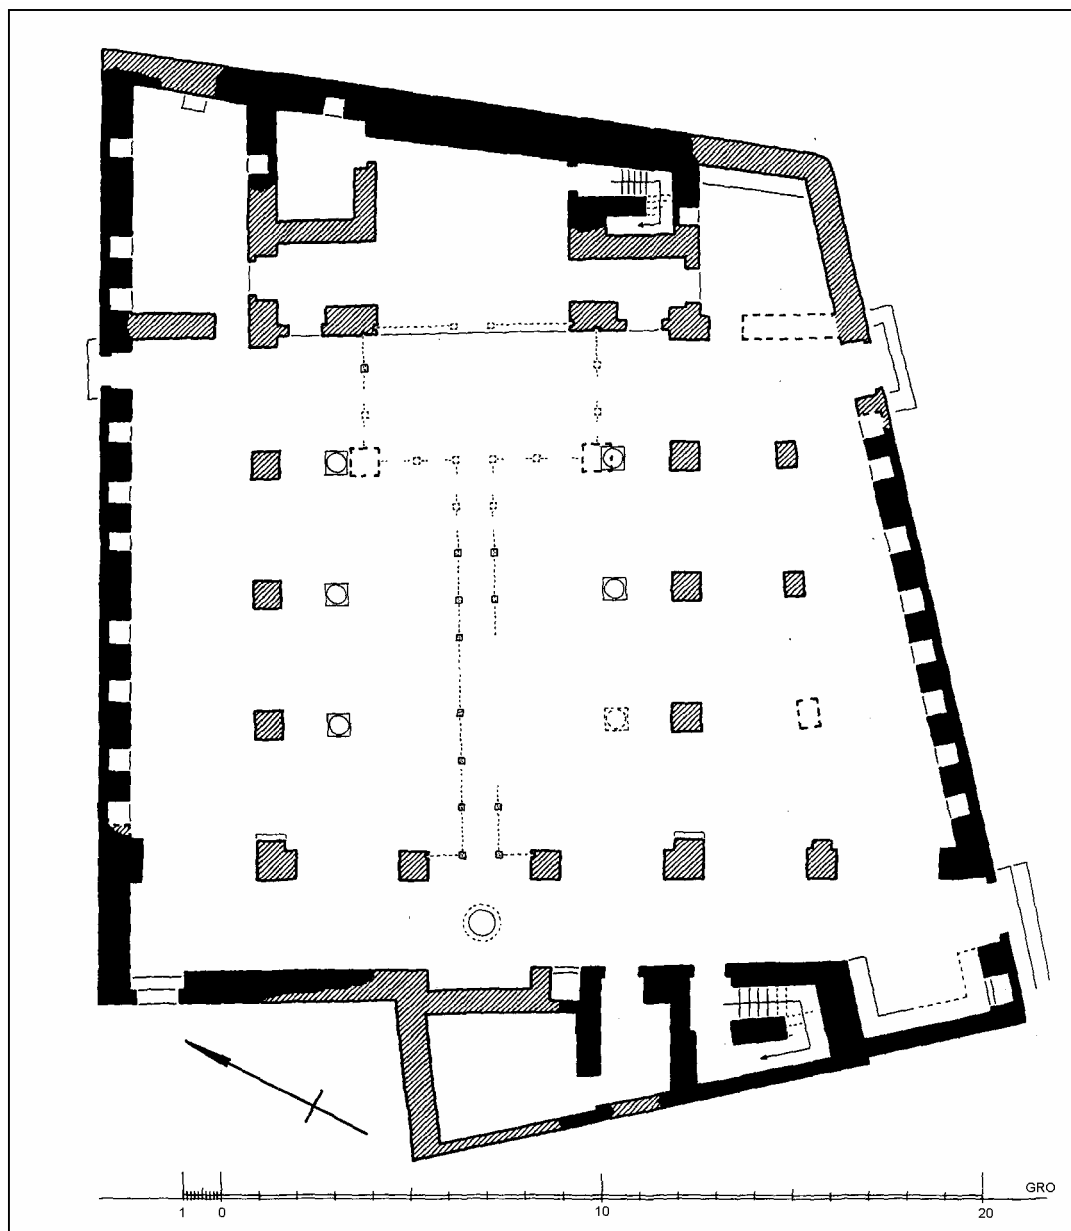

Fig. 6. The East Church of Philae (Grossmann, Christliche Architektur; Fig. 78).

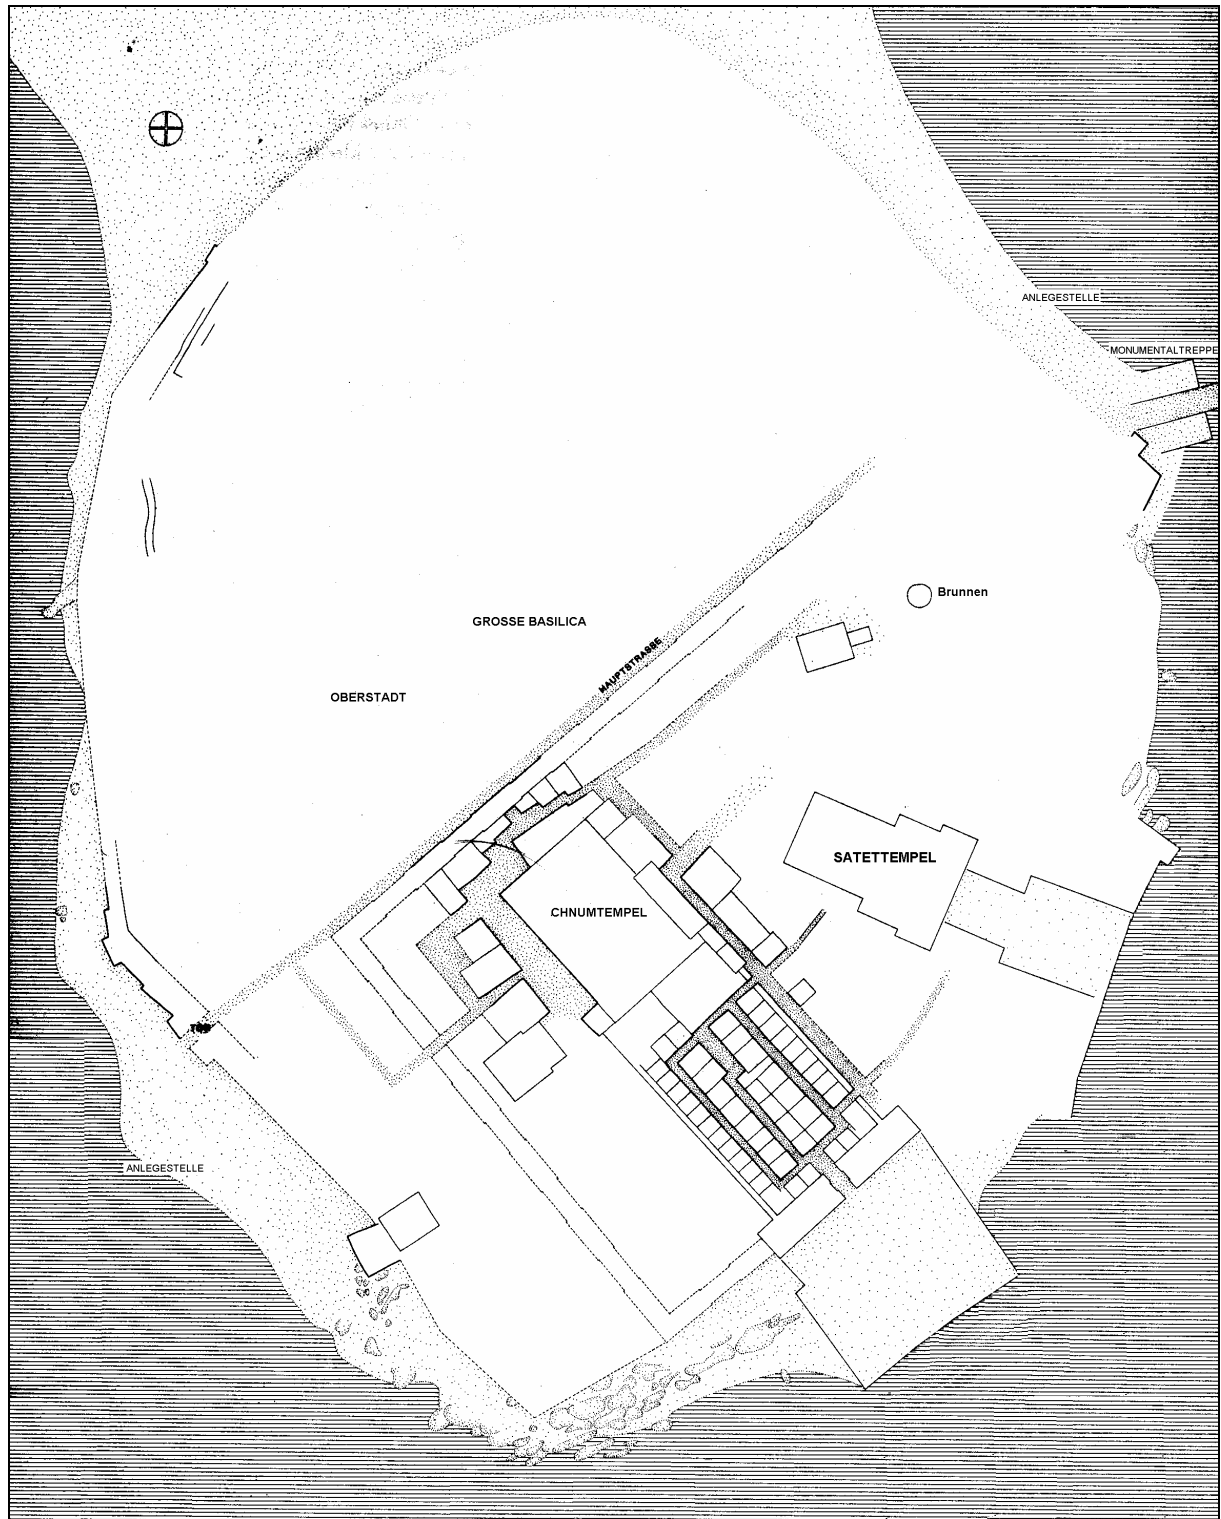

Fig. 7. Elephantine in Late Antiquity (Arnold, Elephantine XXX, Fig. 3).

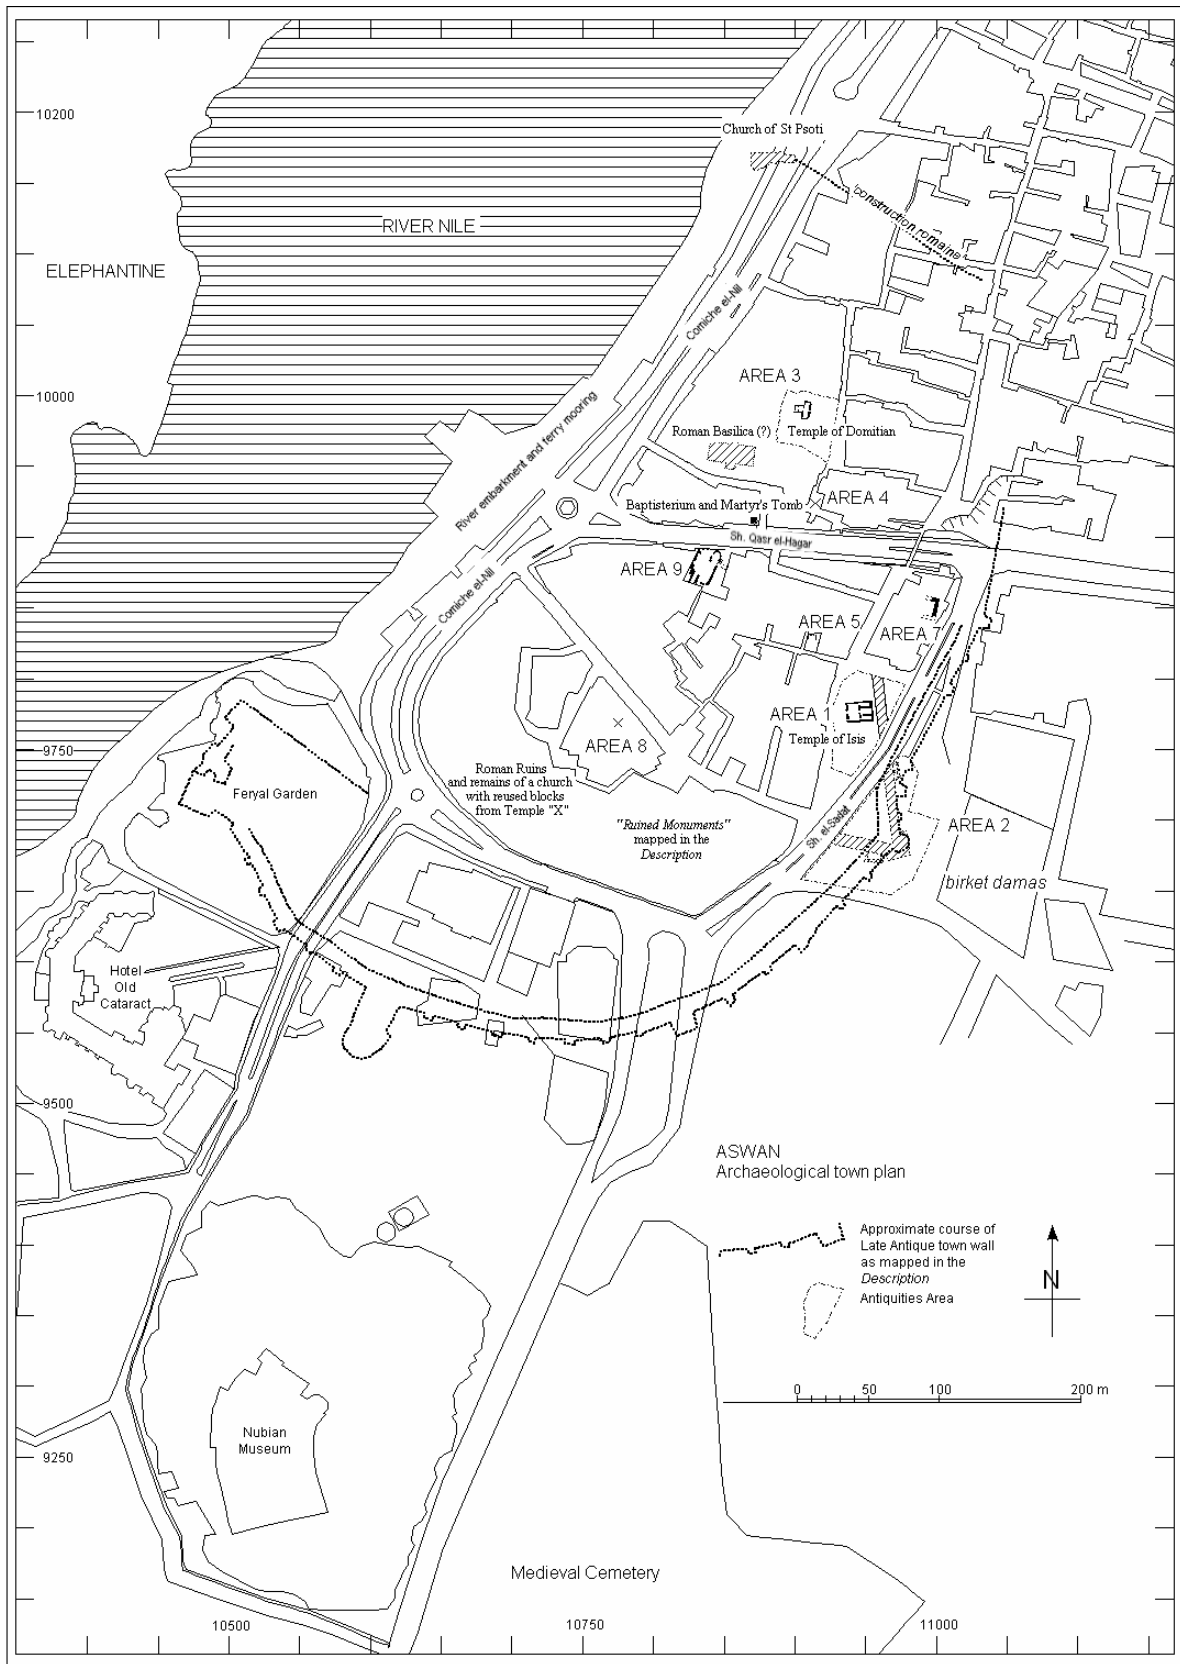

Fig. 8. Archaeological town plan of Aswan (with help of K.-C. Bruhn).

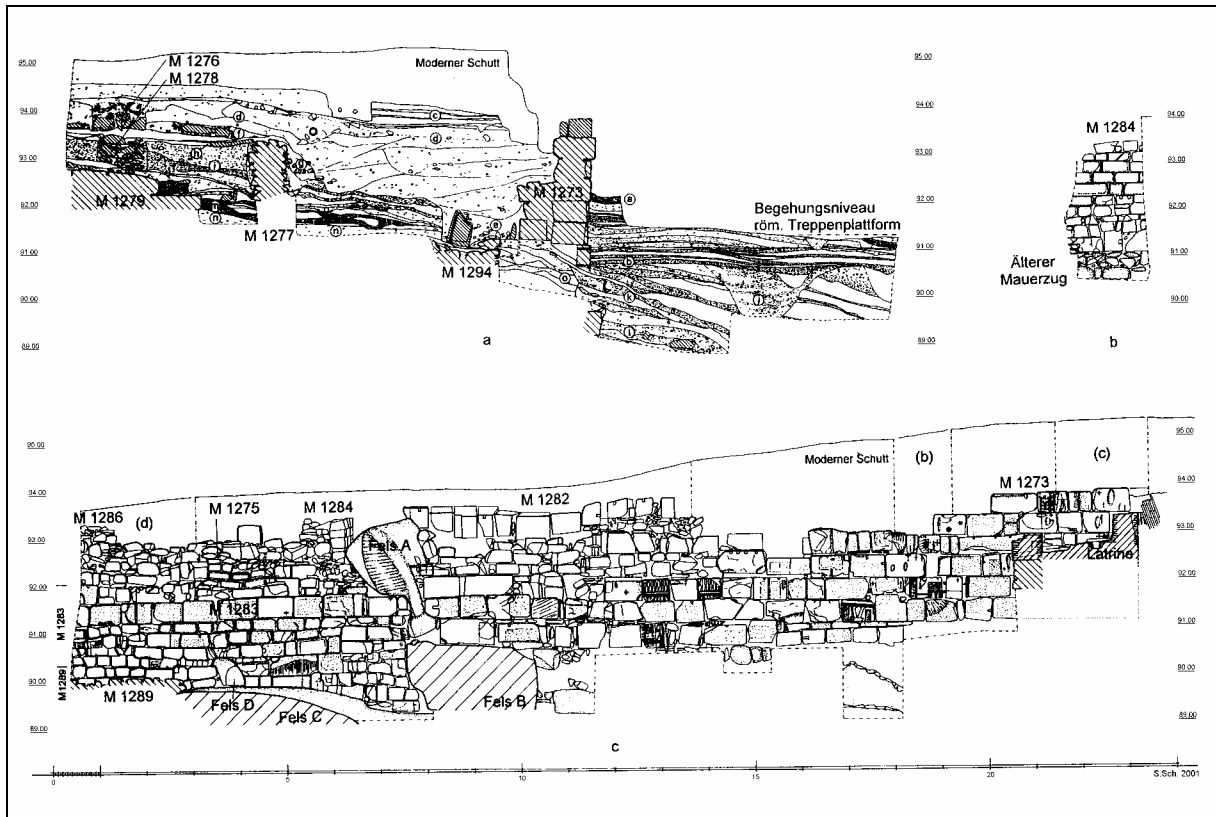

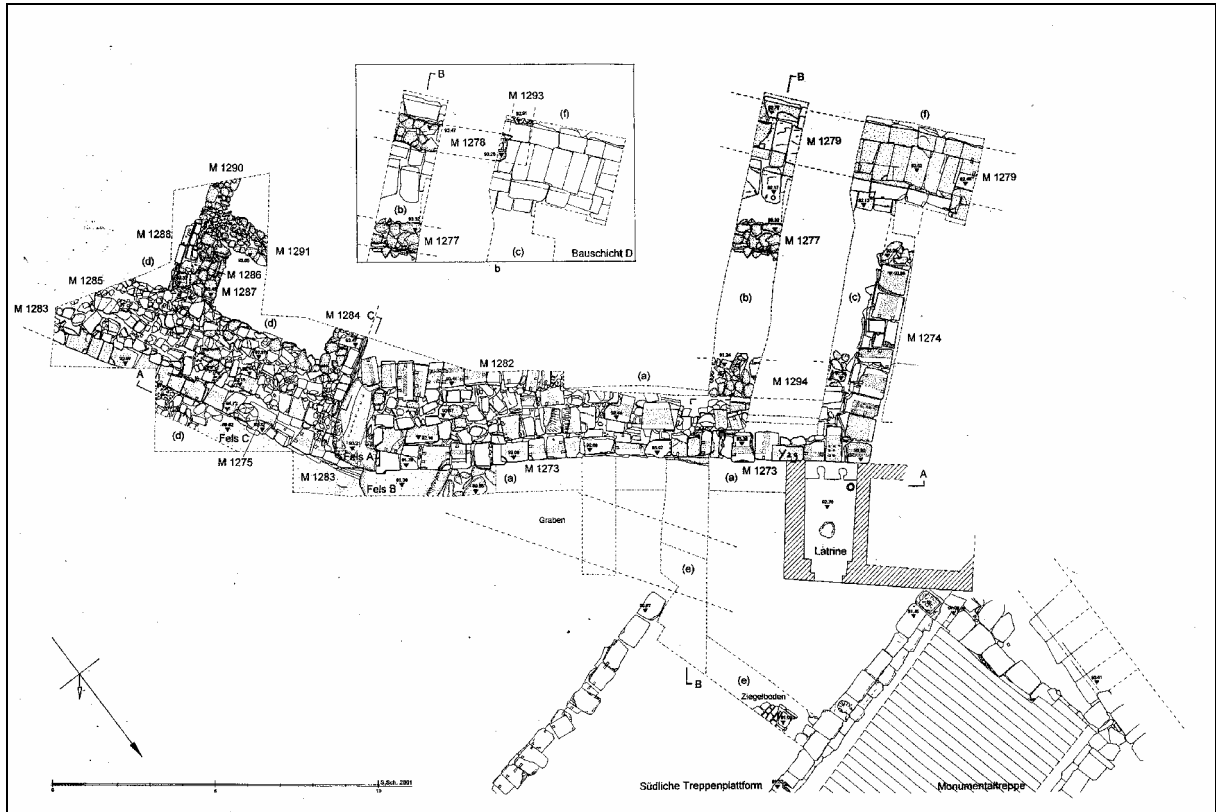

Fig. 9. General overview, cross section and frontal view of a Late Antique quay wall at Elephantine (Dreyer et al., '28./29./30. Grabungsbericht', Fig. 14-5).

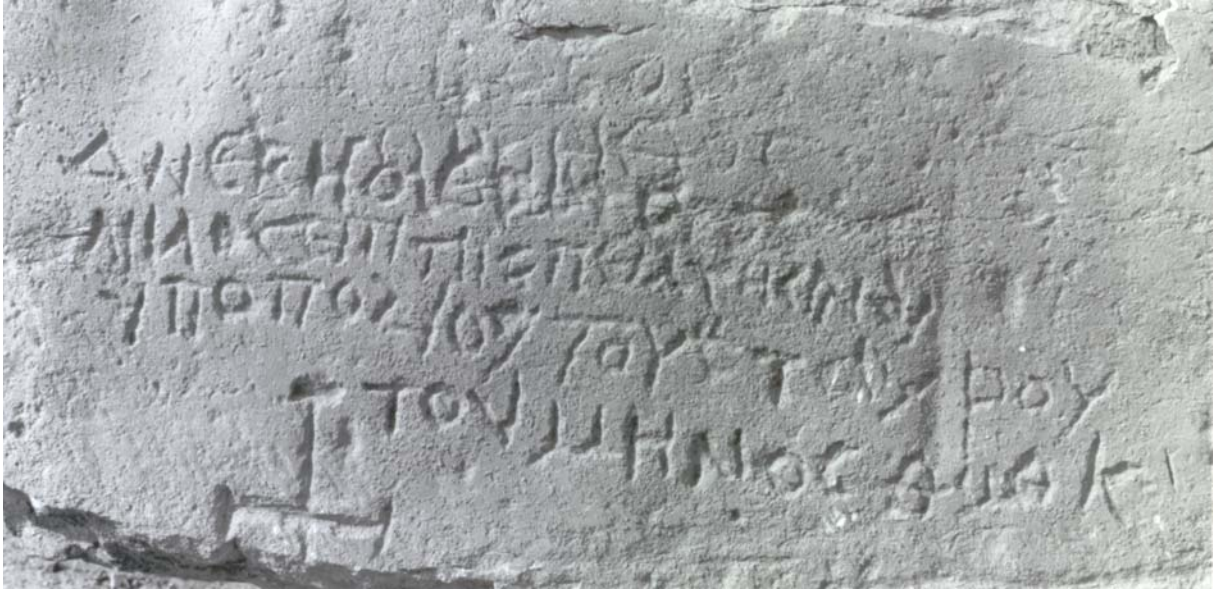

Fig. 10. Greek inscriptions from a Late Antique quay wall at Elephantine (photograph: Swiss Institute for Architectural and Archaeological Research Cairo/A. Paasch).

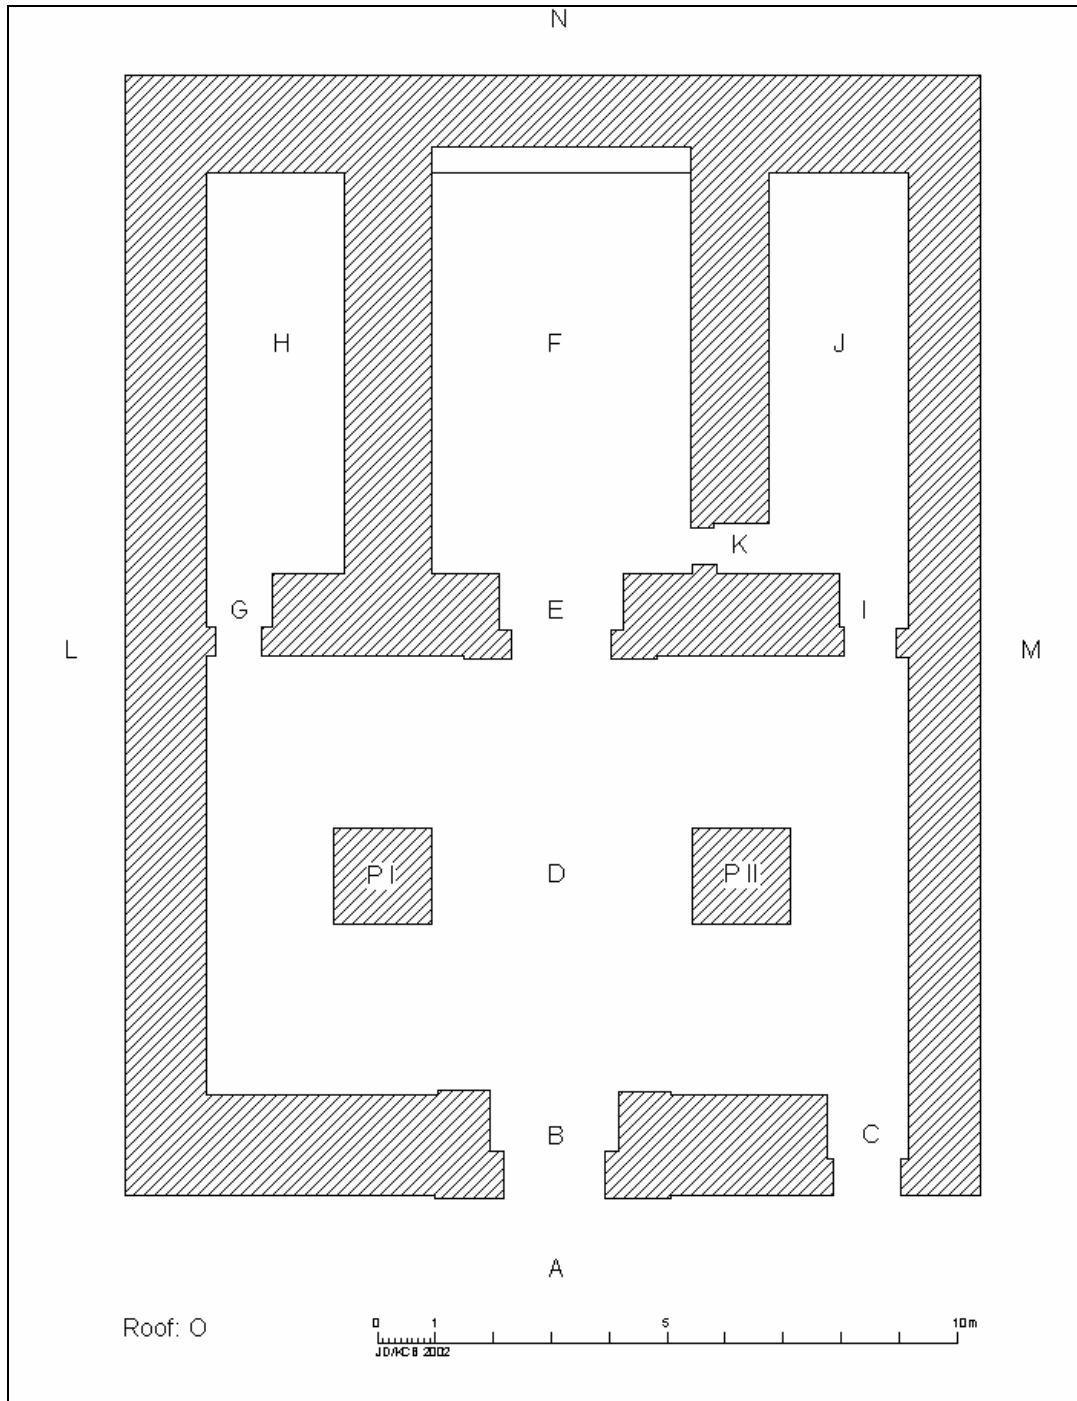

Fig. 11. The temple of Isis at Aswan (after Bresciani and Pernigotti, Assuan, Pl. 4).